

Worksheet: Should/Shouldn't and Phrasal Verbs with 'Get'

Part 1: Should/Shouldn't (10 questions)

- 1. You feel tired in the morning.
You should need more sleep.
- 2. It's raining outside.
You should carry / take an umbrella.
- 3. You want to learn a new language.
You should learn a language learning app.
- 4. You have a headache.
You should take some medicine.
- 5. You are planning a trip.
You should have a map of the area.
- 6. You are feeling stressed.
You should do some exercise.
- 7. You want to improve your English.
You should have more practice.
- 8. It's very cold outside.
You should wear a coat.
- 9. You are going to a formal event.
You should dress dressed up.
- 10. You have a lot of work to do.
You should start early started early.

Part 2: Phrasal Verbs with 'Get' (10 questions)

- 1. You are trying to obtain something.
Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:
I need to get hold of my hands on that new book.
- 2. You are becoming friends with someone.
Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:
We are starting to get along along well.
- 3. You are moving to a higher position.
Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:
She managed to got ahead ahead in her career.

4. You are feeling better after an illness.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

After a few days, I started to get over over the flu.

5. You are receiving something.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

I hope to get a good grade on my exam.

6. You are leaving a place.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

We need to get away away from the city for the weekend.

7. You are understanding something.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

It took me a while to get the hang of the hang of it.

8. You are arriving at a place.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

We will get to to the airport early.

9. You are involved in something.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

She decided to get involved involved in the project.

10. You are recovering from a difficult situation.

Use the phrasal verb "get" to complete the sentence:

It will take time to get over over the loss.