

Exercise 1b / 133 p

1.Do

2.Didn't

3.Is

4.have

5.have

6.do

7.can

8.Are

9.Did

10.Do

Exercise 5C / 13p

1. My new manager is very open-minded and always listens to new ideas.
2. It's nice to travel with her because she's so easy-going about plans.
3. The dog is surprisingly well-behaved when there is food on the table.
4. Try not to upset him; he can be quite bad-tempered in the morning.
5. I'm so absent-minded today; I left my keys in the refrigerator!

Exercise D / 10p

1.mystery

(noun) something that is difficult to explain or understand.

2.baffle baffled

(verb) to confuse somebody completely.

3.remote

(adj.) far away from places where other people live.

4.strange

(adj.) unexpected, surprising, or strange.

5.clue

(noun) a mark, object, or action that shows that somebody or something was present or appeared.

6.solve

(verb) to find the correct answer or explanation for something.