

Hello everyone, our guest this evening is the best example of inspirational person.

He was born on June 15, 1992 in Gharbia, it mine by the way. He is celebrated as one of the world's premier in this field. He raised in a modest family and his passion to football emerged at young age. He influenced by his supportive family and community. Let me ask how to describe someone who is charismatic, skillful, talented. His popularity surged globally particularly his time at Liverpool. His success has made him a national hero in EGYPT and respected figure in international football. Ladies and gentlemen, please give a warm welcome to MO SALAH.
