

Dear financial department manager

I am writing for you to ask you about low morale in your team which is affecting their performance, you should have good communication first with your team and then your team themselves the main point we must get our target you should make some activities and give intensive or bring benefit to your team I look forward to your reply to prove oneself

Sincerely

CEO of company