

Hello Everyone

Same and different

- Let's Split into groups of 3
- Each group should write down a list of all the interesting things that you guys have in common (avoid obvious things, such as all being men or women) and something unique (differences) to each participant.
- At the end of the 5 minutes, each group will share their list to the rest of the class.

Look at this picture to compare and contrast....

Let's define these words...

- Volunteer
- Charity
- Dreadful
- Horrendous
- Unblemished
- Imperfection.
- Gleaming

Now create
A story
Using the vocabulary
Words from the previous Slide...

What do you consider giving back to the community?

- Building a house
- Tutoring children
- Visiting hospital patients
- Planting trees in the park
- Reading to the blind.

What is community service?

Who is benefiting from community service?

What are some ideas for community service?

How much money do you earn ?

Search online for a picture or video which requires some kind of community service, share with the class and have them suggest some ways to help out this community.

Example: Hurricanes

Let's listen to CD (1.06) and check the main ideas you hear.

- Community service includes volunteering time and service to help others.
- Volunteers work in different types of public institutions.
- People often do community service for altruistic reasons.
- Community service includes both service and manual labor.
- Fulfilling your obligations is a form of community service.
- Altruism is concern for others.
- Altruism has nothing to do with the doer, rather it's about the recipient

Based on the previous listening. Let's circle the best answer to complete the sentences.

- 1. Community service is helpful/ not helpful to college applications.
- 2. Community service is volunteering time and service to those who are less fortunate / more fortunate.
- 3. A school is an example of an institution / individual.
- 4. Reading to the blind/ Building a house is an example of manual labor.
- 5. When they start, some volunteers' main motivation is to improve their resumes/ earn money.
- 6. Overall, most people do community service because it looks good on job applications/ they care about others.
- 7. Altruism is concern for others/ for yourself.
- 8. Volunteering to help other is virtue/ duty.
- 9. Altruism is doing something because it is your duty/ you want to.

Debate: Do you think it has more pros than cons?

Or the opposite

Which things do you feel like there obligatory?

What do you feel are altruistically?

Incorporate sentences like:

I think doing community service will help

It has a great impact on

Its actually an unnecessary act of Such things shouldn't obligatory

Let's use these transition words: for example, for instance, such as, like, in other words

- _____, some volunteers tutor children who need help in their studies in summer school programs.
- A lot of volunteers work in hospitals. _____, they donate time to visiting patients who have no relatives or run errands for busy doctors and nurses.
- Sometimes volunteers do manual labor _____ helping build a house or planting trees in a local park.
- It could also be something very simple, _____ providing transportation for people who can't drive.
- _____, giving up a day to build a house for a less fortunate family that you may never even meet is altruism.

Can you recall any act of kindness that you have seen in your country or any country?

Oral Quiz 1

- Talk about how nourishment and the community are related.
- Think of ways to treat our community while incorporating our health into the conversation.
- Does emotional nourishment play any kind of role in the community?
- Could it have an effect on community service as well?